All About Lulu Quotes by Jonathan Evison - Goodreads

But as Will gradually pulls his act together, Lulu seems to be spiraling into a deeper hole, leading to a series of events that left me awestruck, even though in hindsight, all of the clues were deftly planted by the cagey Evison. "All About Lulu" is an unexpected mystery and an unexpected delight, a superbly well-told tale with approachable and likeable characters, a relentless pace, and uncommon insight into the human spirit and relationships.

Serious stuff, true. But rather than devolve into a whining diatribe, like a third-rate Holden Caulfield, "All About Lulu" is both very funny and very honest. Evison takes William, an outcast within his own family, and reveals him with all his flaws and pettiness as well as with his capacity to love and grow and learn.
