Carrie's War by Nina Bawden - Goodreads

Carrie's War by Nina Bawden is the story of Carrie and her little brother Nick during World War II. The children were sent to live in the country, away from the bombings in London, for their own safety. I'd bet you $55 million dollars you could not show me a children's story with characters more real and more human.

Carrie's War is perhaps the most well-known book in Nina Bawden's vast oeuvre. Just a little older than her main character, Bawden was evacuated from London to Wales at 14 in 1939, but returned to London in 1942. I am sure that Bawden's experiences are what make Carrie's War such a compelling story - as they say write what you know.
