Christopher Moore Coyote Blue A Novel - World of Digitals

For entertaining, forgettable fiction I tend to go in the humorous direction, so for such a purpose I brought Christopher Moore. He's got another novel, Sacre Bleu, hitting shelves next month, and I picked up Coyote Bleu. I mean Blue. As far as comic novelists go, I say he's the best thing since Douglas Adams.

Coyote Blue Quotes by Christopher Moore - Goodreads

Coyote Blue is a another fine example of Christopher Moore's satirical, and sometimes cockeyed, view of life and religion, caricaturing certain cultural notions toward a humorous end. It is the sort of story that will bend the reader's spiritual thinking and sensibilities; much as Lamb did for Christianity, so Coyote Blue does for Native Americans.

Christopher Moore is my favorite author and this is probably his best work. "Coyote Blue" on the surface is an excellent suspense and love story. But as you peel back the layers upon layers, you find deeper meaning. The Trickster is alive and well and easily recognized in many people we know and Mr. Moore made this harsh reality visible and funny.
