Jag Stevie J Cole
Stevie Cole did a phenomenal job of painting a clear image of this broken and shattered man. So much emotion poured from the text, you couldn't help but feel the deep soul crushing, self loathing that Jagger had for himself and his life.

Jag(6) By: Stevie J. Cole. All of the air in my lungs rushed out in one breath. "Fuck, yeah! We'll be there." My pacing had turned into a full sprint. "Great. My assistant, Jules, will be in touch with you tomorrow to make travel plans. Look forward to working with you, Jag." And with that, James hung up.

Jag(5) By: Stevie J. Cole. Placing my guitar on the table, I glanced over at her. Stephanie's auburn hair was pulled away from her face, and her jungle-green eyes popped against her fair skin. She was beautiful, and I felt like I should love her. She had been my biggest supporter: Always listening to me try different riffs, helping me with ...

Jag by Stevie J. Cole- Free Books Online Jag(19) By: Stevie J. Cole. Jerking the wheel, he swerved around a beat-up Civic that was going thirty miles an hour and riding with its blinker on, James laid on the horn. "Learn how to drive, you fucking dumbass!" he shouted, his mouth over-exaggerating his words as he glared at the driver.

Rush's story was much different than Jag's yet so similar. Where Jag tried to numb life, Rush tried anything and everything to just feel something. Stevie J Cole gives fair warning. These novels do describe lots of drug use...but that's what made the stories so real for me.

Series Review: The Pandemic Sorrow series by Stevie J. Cole
Stevie J. Cole is a secret rock star. Sex, drugs and, oh wait, no, just sex. She's a whore for a British accent and has an unhealthy obsession with Russell Brand.
