BOOK REVIEW: Lexia by Rachel M. Raithby – #NerdProblems

Chapter 1 Lexia Two Years after Holocaust The sun peaked the hill, its golden rays bleaching the forest, but Lexia didn't see the present; she saw the past. Her hand grazed the tree she sat in, the texture familiar yet from another lifetime. Dropping to the ground, her knees bent to absorb the impact, much like she had done a hundred times before.

Surrender (The Deadwood Hunter Series Book 4), page 1

The things Lexia had seen or made to do whilst under the control of the Hunters where bad, sometimes downright scary... especially being that her mother is the leader & creator of them all. Lexia can't live with her choice & so hids behind the facade of Maura, still teathered only slightly to Linc, while Maura is in charge.

Amazon.com.au:Customer reviews: Holocaust (The Deadwood ...

Both Book 1 and 2 of the Deadwood Hunter Series were thoroughly enjoyable, gripped on Lexia and Lincoln's story. Book 3 focuses mostly on Lexia's battle with her demons. Truly hooked on this story. The way it's written, each chapter you just want to read on. And not to spoil the ending for anyone but totally unpredictable in the last few chapters.
