When saying "Oh my God" or "Oh my gosh" as in Purmou's example, what is meant is "I'm surprised". Your actual meaning has nothing towards your thoughts or feelings towards God, whether good or bad. When saying "Oh my God", you are using it in a way which is trivializing his name which is what the commandment tells us not to do. - a_hardin Aug 29 '11 at 3:18
