What did you love best about The Forgotten Beasts of Eld? This was not my favorite book by Patricia A. McKillip, but it does not take a great story to enjoy her writing. The words in her books have a cadence and poetry to them that often feels like you are listening them from a song in a dream.

The Forgotten Beasts of Eld is a 1974 World Fantasy Award-winning novel by Patricia A. McKillip; the very first book to win that award. It was her breakout novel. The story has a fairy-tale-like quality, but, as usual with McKillip's works, the myths and legends mentioned in the story are almost entirely her own invention.
