The War of the Reunions (1683-84) was a conflict involving France, Spain, the Holy Roman Empire and their allies. It can be seen as a continuation of the 1667-1668 War of Devolution and 1672-1678 Franco-Dutch War, which were driven by Louis XIV's determination to establish defensible boundaries along France's northern and eastern borders.. Despite the peace established by the 1678 Treaty ...

First published in 1971 (the year of my birth), The War of the Running Dogs is a history of the battle between communist insurgents in Malaya and the British government of the time. The timeline of the book runs from 1948-1960. The text is dry, to say the least, which made the book less than palatable to me.

Running | Definition of Running by Merriam-Webster

Running the War. THE GOVERNMENT of the United States never declared war on the Confederacy, an omission which had odd legal consequences. But it was legality which prevented it from doing so. In Northern eyes, the South was not independent but remained constitutionally part of the Union. The Union could not fight itself or even part of itself.
