The Winter of the Witch exceeded my already high expectations. It is at turns eerie and heartbreaking, and wondrous and strange. It is at turns eerie and heartbreaking, and wondrous and strange. Vasya continues to be a heroine who is strong and filled with agency, without falling prey to the tired tropes that too many fantasy heroines are afflicted by.

Book Review: The Winter of the Witch | Traveling in Books

In The Winter of the Witch, Vasya grows into a woman, comes fully into her own powers, and takes the word “witch,” and OWNS it—all while shattering the traditional consequences women associated with the term “witch’ faced. And she doesn't apologize for it.
