Book Review: Through the Woods by Emily Carroll

Through the Woods. Journey through the woods in this sinister, compellingly spooky collection that features four brand-new stories and one phenomenally popular tale in print for the first time. These are fairy tales gone seriously wrong, where you can travel to "Our Neighbor's House" - though coming back might be a problem.

Through the Woods by Emily Carroll Of all of the gothic horror graphic novel fairy tales in this collection, Carroll's unnerving take on Bluebeard ' A Lady's Hands Are Cold ' blew me away. It's the most complete and satisfying of the bunch. Gorgeous, vivid illustrations and lyrical yet elegantly simple prose.
